

I support this petition. Amateur radio privileges should be granted after a person demonstrates adequate knowledge of the modes and methods commonly used in the amateur radio community. The General and Extra tests should certainly cover these modes and methods, as they presently do not, IMHO. I also support allowing CW privileges for Technician class, as an encouragement to expand their interests and skills. KC8DXX.